

This is one of the best things that new jersey has to protect us from anoying and unwanted calls. I am one who is tired of having telemarketers calling during dinner time and some don't want to leave messages with my wife unless it is me. If this act is overtuned you will be making a big mistake.